Lesson 01: Strategic Speaking

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to speak with strategy, structure, and clear purpose.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Do you think before you speak, or do you speak spontaneously?
2. What makes someone sound confident and powerful when speaking?
3. How can structure improve your communication?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Strategy — Plan before speaking

Structure — Organized flow of ideas

Purpose — Reason for speaking

Point — Main idea

Deliver — Say clearly and effectively

Emphasize — Highlight importance

Control — Manage your speech

Impact — Strong effect

Clarity — Easy to understand

Approach — Way of speaking

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: When I speak in meetings, I try to organize my ideas first.

Rico: Yeah, same. If you just talk randomly, people don't really follow you.

Victor: Exactly. Strategic speaking is about structure. First, present your main point. Then, support it with reasons.

Mia: And you should also think about your goal before you start speaking.

Rico: Right. Like, are you explaining, convincing, or just sharing?

Victor: Precisely. When your purpose is clear, your message becomes stronger and more effective.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I say my idea → I clearly say my main idea → First, I clearly present my main idea, then I support it with reasons

I explain → I explain clearly → I explain clearly by organizing my points step by step

I speak → I speak with structure → I speak with structure, purpose, and clear direction

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What does Victor say about strategic speaking?
2. Why is structure important?
3. What should you think about before speaking?

Task 2:

1. Explain why learning English is important → _____
2. Describe your goal in life → _____
3. Give your opinion about technology → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You speak with a clear structure and purpose.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute structured speech including:

- main point
- supporting ideas
- clear structure
- strong ending

Lesson 02: Advanced Explanation & Clarity

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to explain complex ideas clearly, precisely, and effectively.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Is it difficult for you to explain complicated ideas in English?
2. What makes an explanation clear and easy to understand?
3. How do you usually explain something step by step?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Clarify — Make something clear

Complex — Complicated

Simplify — Make easier

Break down — Divide into parts

Detail — Extra information

Example — Show idea

Point — Key idea

Explain clearly — Easy to understand

Process — Steps

Accuracy — Correctness

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: Sometimes it's hard to explain complex ideas clearly.

Rico: Yeah, especially when there's too much information.

Victor: The key is to simplify. First, break the idea down into smaller parts.

Mia: That makes sense. Then you explain each part step by step.

Rico: And examples help a lot, right?

Victor: Exactly. When you use examples, people understand faster and more clearly.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

It's difficult → It's difficult to explain → It's difficult to explain because the idea is complex

I explain → I explain clearly → I explain clearly by breaking the idea into parts

I say it → I say it simply → I say it simply so people can understand easily

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What does Victor say about explaining ideas?
2. Why is it important to break ideas down?
3. What helps people understand better?

Task 2:

1. How to learn English effectively → _____
2. How to solve a problem → _____
3. How to improve communication → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You explain a complex idea clearly.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute explanation including:

- clear idea
- step-by-step breakdown
- example
- simple language

Lesson 03: Persuasion & Influence

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to persuade others, influence decisions, and communicate convincingly.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Do you find it easy to convince people?
2. What makes an argument persuasive?
3. How do people influence your decisions?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Persuade — Make someone agree

Influence — Affect decisions

Convince — Make someone believe

Argument — Reason to support your idea

Evidence — Proof

Point — Main idea

Emphasize — Show importance

Benefit — Advantage

Impact — Strong effect

Approach — Way of speaking

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: I think we should invest more in online education.

Rico: I'm not sure. Why do you think that?

Mia: Because it's more flexible, and it allows more people to access education.

Victor: That's a strong point. Additionally, online platforms can reduce costs significantly.

Rico: Yeah, but what about quality?

Mia: That depends on the platform, but many systems are improving rapidly. For example, interactive tools make learning more effective.

Victor: Exactly. When you consider the benefits and the long-term impact, it becomes a very strong option.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I think → I think it's better → I strongly believe it's better because it offers more flexibility

It's good → It's beneficial → It's beneficial because it improves accessibility and efficiency

You should → You should consider → You should consider this option because it provides better results

✈️ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What does Mia suggest?
2. What reasons does she give?
3. What does Victor add?

Task 2:

1. Convince someone to learn English → _____
2. Convince a friend to travel → _____
3. Convince someone to change a habit → _____

✈️ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You try to convince someone about your idea.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute persuasive speech including:

- clear idea
- strong reasons
- example
- convincing tone

Lesson 04: Handling High-Pressure Conversations

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to stay calm, think clearly, and communicate effectively under pressure.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. How do you react in stressful conversations?
2. What makes a conversation high-pressure?
3. How can you stay calm when facing difficult situations?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Pressure — Stressful situation

Tension — Emotional stress

Respond — Answer

React — Immediate response

Control — Stay calm

Maintain — Keep steady

Composure — Calm behavior

Conflict — Disagreement

Handle — Manage

Approach — Way of dealing

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: Sometimes conversations get really intense, especially at work.

Rico: Yeah, when people disagree strongly, it can get stressful.

Victor: In those situations, it is important to maintain composure and respond calmly.

Mia: But it's not always easy to stay calm.

Victor: That's true. However, if you control your reaction, you can guide the conversation more effectively.

Rico: So instead of reacting emotionally, you stay focused?

Victor: Exactly. Focus on the issue, not the emotion.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I respond → I respond calmly → I respond calmly to maintain control of the situation

I react → I react carefully → I react carefully instead of responding emotionally

I speak → I speak clearly → I speak clearly even under pressure

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What does Victor suggest in high-pressure situations?
2. Why is it important to stay calm?
3. What should you focus on during conflict?

Task 2:

1. Someone disagrees strongly with you → _____
2. You are criticized at work → _____
3. You need to explain a mistake → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You are in a stressful conversation.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute response including:

- calm tone
- clear message
- controlled reaction
- solution-focused thinking

Lesson 05: Negotiation & Agreement Control

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to negotiate effectively, guide conversations, and reach agreements smoothly.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Do you find it easy to negotiate with others?
2. What makes a negotiation successful?
3. How do you usually reach an agreement?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Negotiate — Discuss to reach agreement

Agreement — Final decision

Compromise — Middle solution

Offer — Suggest something

Condition — Requirement

Accept — Agree

Reject — Refuse

Proposal — Plan or suggestion

Outcome — Final result

Flexible — Open to change

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: We need to agree on a plan for this project.

Rico: Yeah, but I think we should keep it simple.

Victor: That's one option. However, we also need to consider long-term results.

Mia: So maybe we can find a balance between both ideas?

Rico: Yeah, I'm open to that. What do you suggest?

Victor: I propose we start with a simple version and improve it over time.

Mia: That sounds reasonable. I agree with that approach.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I agree → I agree with this → I agree with this because it's a balanced solution

I suggest → I suggest this → I suggest this because it leads to better results

We decide → We reach an agreement → We reach an agreement that works for everyone

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What problem are they discussing?
2. What solution does Victor propose?
3. Why does Mia agree?

Task 2:

1. Decide on a plan with a friend → _____
2. Agree on a schedule → _____
3. Find a solution to a problem → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You negotiate and reach an agreement.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute negotiation including:

- proposal
- response
- compromise
- final agreement

Lesson 06: Expressing Complex Opinions

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to express deep, layered opinions with clarity and confidence.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Do you find it easy to explain your opinions in detail?
2. What makes an opinion strong and convincing?
3. How can you show different sides of an idea?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Perspective — Point of view

Complex — Not simple

Layered — Multiple ideas

Nuanced — Detailed and subtle

Argument — Reasoned opinion

Balance — Consider both sides

Contrast — Show difference

Insight — Deep understanding

Consider — Think about

Evaluate — Judge carefully

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: I think social media has both positive and negative effects.

Rico: Yeah, it helps people connect, but it can also be distracting.

Victor: That's a balanced perspective. A strong opinion often considers multiple sides of an issue.

Mia: Exactly. On one hand, it improves communication. On the other hand, it can reduce productivity.

Rico: So it's not just good or bad, it depends on how you use it.

Victor: Precisely. A nuanced opinion shows depth and understanding.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I think → I think it's complex → I think it's complex because it has both advantages and disadvantages

It's good → It has benefits → It has benefits, but it also has drawbacks

I believe → I believe this → I believe this because it depends on multiple factors

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What does Mia say about social media?
2. How does Victor describe a strong opinion?
3. What makes an opinion nuanced?

Task 2:

1. Technology in daily life → _____
2. Online learning vs offline learning → _____
3. Work-life balance → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You express a detailed and balanced opinion.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute opinion including:

- multiple perspectives
- balanced argument
- clear explanation
- thoughtful conclusion

Lesson 07: Argument Building & Defense

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to build strong arguments and defend your position with confidence and logic.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Do you feel confident defending your opinion?
2. What makes an argument strong?
3. How do you respond when someone challenges your ideas?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Argument — Structured opinion

Claim — Main idea

Evidence — Proof

Support — Back up your idea

Counterargument — Opposing idea

Defend — Protect your position

Justify — Give reasons

Logic — Clear reasoning

Position — Your stance

Debate — Formal discussion

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: I believe remote work is more effective than office work.

Rico: I don't agree. I think people work better in teams at the office.

Victor: Both are valid positions. The key is to support your argument with evidence.

Mia: Well, remote work saves time and increases flexibility.

Rico: But teamwork and communication are stronger in the office.

Victor: That's a good counterargument. A strong speaker acknowledges both sides and defends their position logically.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I think → I believe → I strongly believe this because it is supported by clear evidence

I say → I argue → I argue that this is effective based on logical reasoning

I defend → I defend my idea → I defend my idea by addressing counterarguments

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What is Mia's position?
2. What counterargument does Rico give?
3. What does Victor say about strong arguments?

Task 2:

1. Online learning is better → _____
2. Technology improves life → _____
3. Working alone vs teamwork → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You defend your opinion in a discussion.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute argument including:

- clear claim
- supporting evidence
- counterargument
- strong defense

Lesson 08: Multi-Perspective Thinking

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to analyze situations from multiple perspectives and respond with depth and flexibility.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Do you usually think about different sides of a situation?
2. Why is it important to consider multiple perspectives?
3. How can different viewpoints change your opinion?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Perspective — Point of view

Viewpoint — Opinion

Angle — Way of seeing something

Consider — Think about

Analyze — Examine carefully

Factor — Important element

Situation — Context

Interpret — Understand meaning

Flexible — Open to change

Awareness — Understanding

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: I think working remotely is more efficient.

Rico: Yeah, but some people work better in an office environment.

Victor: Both perspectives are valid. It depends on individual working styles and circumstances.

Mia: That's true. Some people need structure, while others prefer flexibility.

Rico: So the situation really depends on the person and the job.

Victor: Exactly. A strong communicator considers multiple factors before forming a conclusion.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I think → I think from one perspective → From one perspective, this is effective, but from another, it may not be

It depends → It depends on the situation → It depends on multiple factors and individual preferences

I understand → I understand both sides → I understand both sides and can evaluate them clearly

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What perspectives are discussed?
2. Why does Victor say both are valid?
3. What factors affect the situation?

Task 2:

1. Online vs offline learning → _____
2. Working alone vs teamwork → _____
3. Technology in daily life → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You analyze a situation from multiple perspectives.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute response including:

- different perspectives
- comparison
- evaluation • conclusion

Lesson 09: Storytelling with Impact

✈️ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to tell engaging, structured stories that create emotional and logical impact.

✈️ Warm-up Questions:

1. Do you enjoy telling stories?
2. What makes a story interesting and memorable?
3. How can emotions improve communication?

✈️ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Story — Narrative

Experience — Personal event

Engage — Capture attention

Emotion — Feeling

Detail — Specific information

Structure — Organized flow

Beginning — Start

Climax — Most important moment

Resolution — Ending

Impact — Strong effect

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: I had an interesting experience during my last trip.

Rico: Yeah? What happened?

Mia: At first, everything was going wrong. I missed my flight and lost my luggage.

Victor: That already creates tension. What happened next?

Mia: Then, unexpectedly, someone helped me solve everything. It completely changed my experience.

Rico: That's a good story. It has a strong turning point.

Victor: Exactly. A powerful story has structure, emotion, and a clear outcome.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I tell → I tell a story → I tell a story with clear structure and emotion

It happened → It happened suddenly → It happened suddenly, which created tension

It ended → It ended well → It ended well, and it taught me something important

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What happened to Mia at the beginning?
2. What changed the situation?
3. What makes a story powerful?

Task 2:

1. A difficult situation → _____
2. A surprising moment → _____
3. A lesson you learned → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You tell a story with impact.

Assignment:

Record a 1–2 minute story including:

- beginning
- problem or tension
- turning point
- resolution

Lesson 10: Master-Level Speaking (Full Control)

➔ PRE-FLIGHT

Objective:

Develop the ability to speak fluently, powerfully, and naturally in any situation with full control.

➔ Warm-up Questions:

1. What does “speaking fluently” mean to you?
2. When do you feel fully confident speaking English?
3. What skills are needed for complete communication control?

➔ BOARDING — STREET VOCABULARY

Fluency — Smooth speaking

Control — Full command

Precision — Accuracy

Delivery — Way of speaking

Confidence — Self-belief

Adapt — Adjust to situation

Flow — Natural movement of speech

Structure — Organized speaking

Impact — Strong effect

Mastery — High-level skill

✈ TAKE-OFF — STREET CONVERSATION

Mia: I feel like I've improved a lot, but I still want to speak more naturally.

Rico: Yeah, like when you don't have to think too much before speaking.

Victor: That is the final stage — when fluency, structure, and confidence work together.

Mia: So it's not just about vocabulary anymore?

Victor: Exactly. It's about control. You adapt your speech depending on the situation.

Rico: So basically, you can handle any conversation?

Victor: Precisely. That is what we call full communication mastery.

✈ CLIMB — SPEAKING UPGRADE

I speak → I speak fluently → I speak fluently with confidence and control

I explain → I explain clearly → I explain clearly and adapt my message to the situation

I communicate → I communicate effectively → I communicate effectively with structure, flow, and impact

➔ CRUISE — CONTROLLED PRACTICE

Task 1:

1. What does Victor say about mastery?
2. What skills are needed for full control?
3. What does it mean to adapt your speech?

Task 2:

1. Talk about your personal growth → _____
2. Explain a complex topic → _____
3. Share your future vision → _____

➔ LANDING — STREET SIMULATION

Scenario:

You speak with full confidence and control in any situation.

Assignment:

Record a 2-minute master-level speech including:

- clear structure
- fluent delivery
- strong ideas
- confident tone
